It is amusing, if not instructive, to note the difference between the mugwarry and the democratic interpretation of the "less ms" of the recont elections. For Morrison s de-feat the Times finds reasons "quite unconnect-ed with his views on the tariff question," since he was "quite opposed in theory and practice to the civil service reform policy of the admin istration." In Indiana "the old spoils doctrine was given a very free swing, and the "republicans captured the state" in Michigan "pri ronage was wasted in an effort to capture a senator," and so on The #0714, from its point of view, takes a look at all these fact-and proceeds to give them an interpretation radically different from that placed upon them by the 2 mes. It sever's that the admin size tron has been too independent and to partie 1 shough, that it has shown to on ich considers enough, that has sense to reput forms, and the much regard or their ideas of policy and g verment, and that the electron show that the president, instead of having sup it and ha president, insected of many is allowed at the party by pursuing this course that weakened it by resisting its just demand. The first is that the smooratic party has been rebuked for not coming up to the standard of the presiden second is that the president has been rebuked for not coming up to the requirements of the party. No doubt in both views there is a good deal of truth. The president's course and methods are disliked by large numbers in his party, and on his side the m dministration that would gratify this section of is party would be weak before the country he course he is pursuing is the one on the whole and in the long run that will give his party much more strength than the one he is saked to adopt, for a party cannot be strong unless its administration of public affairs is reputable, and its administration of public affairs cannot be repulable when the notion that the public serv ice is to be managed primarily with a view to providing rewards for partian service is mount-

BUILDING AT SPOKANE FALLS

BUILDING AT SPOKARE FALLS

Spokant. Review

The season just drawing to a close has been one of the mest active in building operations in the history of this city. The class of improvements of this kind have been of the rety best both in the line of business houses and private residences. The result of operations is a surprise to all who visit the place, and it not only marks a new era in the progress of the rails, but it demonstrates the combelence that our people have in its future. The spirit of enterprise mainfested is without a parallel on the cost, and with such a feeling existing among the people the place. Can never go backward. It is a matter of congratulation to note this rapid stride, and a still greater ple suite to be able to report that the epidenne of building is not to die out with the present year. In fact, for an indications the syring of 18-7 will inau qurate a building boom that will far surpass if at cf 18-8 in the number, character and value of the structures. THE READY LAW IN SOUTHERN OREGON

Our district court closed its work last Satur day During this term the affect of the celibrated Kesty law noon one of our most important industries was fully developed. One of our citizens who has spent the better part of his life in the cultivation of a vineyard has been so cripled in his business by the penalty attached to the law as will in all probability part a stop to any forther development of this industry by him. Not only will it do tals, but it will discourage offices who have afready secured the land, and have the improvements necessary for such an industry. In this county alone there are the usends of acres of fine graps land yet undeveloped, which would be soon taken and allegated to greate if only they were ensecured the land, and have the improvements necessary for such an industry. In this county alone there are thousands of acres of fine grape land yet undeveloped, which would be soon taken and planted in grapes, if only they were encouraged by liberal laws such as are in California, and thereby old greatly to the wealth of the county. The demand for wine will be the same, if by legisla for you prohibit its manufacture in this state. It is well known that thou stades of gallous of California and other wines are imported yearly in this state, and should the manufacturer of it be so discouraged by unwise laws as to at least partially probibit its manufacture leve, other imported wines would take its place. We have the soil and climate to produce as good a quality of wine and grow as fine grapes as our sister slate. All we sak is to be let alone in this matter. Therefore we ask of our representatives to do all in their power to repeal or amend the law so as to all we this growing industry to develop. By an doing you will idd wealth to our country and give our many and France. WORK ON 3HE 0 & 0
